Tory Euro-MP Roger Helmer said last month:

"I have yet to meet anyone who has an irrational fear of homosexuals, or of homosexuality. So to the extent that the word has any meaning at all, it describes something which simply does not exist. "Homophobia" is merely a propaganda device designed to denigrate and stigmatise those holding conventional opinions..."

We, the undersigned, say to David Cameron:

Roger Helmer MEP is wrong. Homophobia is real. Mr Helmer's comments are an insult to Britain's LGBT community and we urge you to publicly reject his views and make clear that they have no place in mainstream politics in our country.
